The BARRE CANDY KITCHEN

SOMETHING NEW.

We are displaying in our window this week a few designs in Glassware at popular prices—15c and 25c. Also a new Glass Table Set at 60c per set. This is fine Cut Glassware and at a glance one would think it was genuine Cut Glass.

It will also pay you to look at our other window for something new in Crockery.

Co. H. vs. V. M. C. basket ball game at gymnasium this evening.

Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Lamb went to Waterbury this morning on a visit.

The Rev. Ariel Bellondi returned last night from a several days' business visit in South Hyattsville.

Company H basket ball team of Montpelier, old rivals, will play Barre Y. M. C. at the church street gymnasium this evening.

Remember the seventeenth of March and don't forget the Siege of Limerick which is to be presented in the opera house that evening.

The regular monthly supper given by the ladies of the Baptist church last evening was very largely attended and very successful. The ladies of the Clover club attended the supper in a very successful manner.

B. A. Eastman has just received back from taxidermist, G. W. French of Bradford, the head of the caribou which he shot in Newfoundland last fall, and also a white owl which Mr. Eastman's prowess secured for him. Both are mounted most elegantly, the caribou's head, which is itself a fine specimen, being an especially good piece of workmanship.

P. W. Henry, aged 76 years, died on Monday night from kidney trouble at the home of Mrs. J. W. Dillon, his daughter in Montpelier. Mr. Henry's house was formerly in Franklin, Me., where he followed the calling of granite cutter. He came to Montpelier to reside with his daughter about two years ago and has during that time been in poor health but his condition became alarming about three weeks ago when he took his bed. He is survived by a second daughter, Mrs. O. E. Clay of Boston, and a granddaughter, Miss Genevieve Clay of this city.

The Vote of the Season.

The vote of March 6th determined the popular feeling in regard to the "yes" or "no" question of the city for the coming year. Likewise will the March vote of the ladies of Barre and vicinity determine the popularity of the good things we are endeavoring to bring into our Garment Department. We are now in a position to show you a good line of Coats and Suits, as well as Shirt Waists and Shirt Waist Suits, in the popular styles.

Ladies' Spring Coats.

All ladies, whether in need of a new Spring Coat or not, are anxious to know what the newest and best things are for the season.

The past week has been a busy one and we are in a position to show you a good display of the new and popular Coats.

The above cut represents one of our new Pony Coats, made of good quality covert and nicely tailored. Price from $1.50 to $2.00.

Ask to see the Children's Pony Coat in sizes from 6 to 16 years.

Ladies' Spring Suits.

One of the popular Spring Coats for Miss is made of a mixed cloth in light and medium greys. Medium loose plain back and with box plait effect, which gives it a graceful appearance. Priced from $5.00 to $7.50.

The

medium loose back Coat in a 45-inch length seems to meet with very good favor, being made of plain covert and mixed cloths, and made up in the popular styles. This Coat is sure to be in great demand for a run-about Coat.

In Children's Coats we can give you almost anything you may need. The most popular ones are those that are the most like the Ladies' Coat.

One very good number is a three-quarters length Coat in covert cloth, style similar to the Ladies'. The price is $6.50.

Ask to see the Children's Pony Coat in sizes from 6 to 16 years.

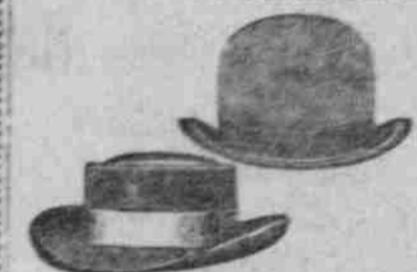

We are showing a very good Suit in this style made of the popular invisible grey plaid, trimmed with a black wool braid. The price is $10.00. Other Suits in the better qualities.
